Letters and Brawn Join Hands in a Bieyele Carnival Where Judges Favor New Woman Costumes.

Waltham, Mass. July 4.—Six thousand people witnessed the athletic carrival at the Waltham bicycletrack to-day, under the anspices of the Emmet Literary Association and the Waltham Bicycle Clab. The events were especially noteworthy, because of the appearance of Johnson, Tyler and Sanger in a professional race for $1,000 and also because of a contest between several women for a prize to be given to the one having the most approved female bicycle costume, the latter event being the first of its kind ever held.

In the professional race, Johnson broke the world's competitive record for a mile standing start, making the mile in 1:58 3-5. This race was ran in two hears, Johnson won the first in 2:00 2.5, finishing three lengths ahead of Sanger, who, in turn, crossed the In the second and final beat Tyler.

WILL NOT ORDER A STRIKE

Protective Street Railway Union Without Authority.

If the Men Decide to Go Out Upon Their Own Motion the Union Will Support Them.

There will be no strike ordered ou the Railway Union, that organization having so decided upon the grounds that it has in authority to issue the order.

The demand upon the company for an increase of pay has been left entirely with the employes of that road for adjustment, and wastever action they may take after sometation and due consideration, will receive its support. If a strike should occur it will be the voluntary act of those directly interested, and, with the understanding that it is the last resort, they will have the aid, imancially and otherwise, of the organization.

A committee has been appointed, com-posed exclusively of Anacostia road employes, charged with the duty of making a final appeal for the advance. Should it be refused, the matter will then be contended the union meeting last night it is believed that the general sentiment of the Amnostia men is opposed to a strike, but they speak with a good deal of feeling of the adverse results of the most recent effort to have their wages raised to $1,50 a day, the request of the committee having being met with a positive refusal.

The employes refer to the fact that President Griswood's rejection of their demand was accompanied by the statement that the company is losing $8,000 per year, yet when there was talk of having a receiver appointed Mr. Graswold made oath to the effect that the road was being run on a profitable basis. They contrast these two statements, and then cite that a man worked four days on the road, and when he got his pay cuvelope he found that it contained but $2.60, the balance of $2 due him having been withhold for nome reason.

They also allege that Mr. Griswold has admitted to them that his company is has admitted to them that his company is hable to a fine of $25 a day for running its cars without a conductor, and that even with this economy he professes to be unable to pay living wages, while in court he has said that his read is carning profits. The units sympathizes with the men under these circumstances and will give hem its indorsement in Whatever action them its indorsement in whatever action they may decide to take. The union elected five delegates last night to represent it in the Federation of Labor for the ensuing six months. They were F. M. Dent, James Trainer, F. M. Hawkins, J. Herbert and L. H. McMillan, Mr. Dent was elected financial secretary, to socceed M. Casey, who resigned, and Mr. Casey was transferred to the executive committee in place of Dent.

The results of the meeting held in Anacostia last Sanorday night were reported to the amount of the executive committee.

During the convention special efforts will be made by the papers to give full and complete reports, and delegates will have no cause to complain for lack of material to make up their reports. Correspondence has passed between the United Society and the United States gov-

Secretary Herbert has replied that while no arrangements can yet be definitely made, it is quite possible that the request may be complied with.

SUFFERED MANY YEARS

He Tried Many Doctors and Remedies Without Success--He Called on Dr. Walker and Is Well.

Mr. John Ball, of 627 L street north-cast, a straightforward gentleman, a state-roofer by trade, in an interview a few days ago said: "I have suffered for infeen years with a terrible after on my lifteen years with a terrible elect on my left arm, extending from above the elbow almost to the wrist. My blood was impore, and I tried many doctors and all the patent remedies that I ever heard of. The bone at the elbow joint was almost proruding, and there was imminent danger of my losing the use of my arm entirely. In this condition I went to Dr. Walker two weeks ago. Now, after two weeks treatment, my arm is almost well, my blood is in good condition, and my health is perfect. But for Dr. Walker I might have been a helpless cripple, or have lost my life."

FAVORITES WERE WINNERS

Bookmakers Nearly Went Broke and the Talent Coined Money on Heavily Played Choices-Miss Bowser Galloped Away From Sir William. Catechism's Easy Victory.

Those who spent the Fourth at the St. Asaph track not only spent a pleasant, cool afternoon, but most of them went me with pockets full of facre. The okmakers did not have fack come their way, and as a consequence four favorite and a heavily played second choice were first past the wire.

Contrary to expectations, only nine gentlemen of odds put up their slates, and they were insufficient, as the holiday crowd could not bet their money fast enough. By the time, however, that three straight favorites crossed the plate the bookies were not as auxious to lay up against the good things as they were when the game first opened.

During the early part of the afternoon the track was fairly good, being dry on top, but after it had rained awhile it became very bad and was slippery as well as sticky good filly she is by simply galloping away from Sir William, a half mile in 49.1.2. Sir William was off in front but she had him tiptoeing before a forloug had been run and drawing away swung into the stretch away out in front. She easily maintained her lead and wor without the first the first the stretch away lead and won without much effort. Catechism had an easy thing of it in the opening race, going to the post at 9 to 10 and winning easily by three lengths. LOWERED HIS COLORS.

Sir William was a 3 to 5 favorite in the two-year-old race, but at no time had a look in. Miss Bowser won all the way, finishing three lengths before Beckett's colt.

Owing to the bad start that Jessie Taral got the last time she started, her chances resterday looked particularly rosy, and she closed a 4 to 5 choice. Belehanty got off in front with her, and taking a commanding lead, won easily by two lengths from Caroven, with Mrs. Stewart third.

In the mile event Cheddar was allowed to make the running to the far turn, where

The closing race went to another favor-ite, Johnny F, being the one to do the trick. Nemo was an indifferent second after lead-

The junior eight-cared crew of the Co-umbia Athletic Club, entered in the People's regatta, held at Philadelphia yesterday, did not make the trip for the reason that during the week one member of the crew found it necessary to leave the city, and another went out of training. This very much crippled the crew and the time in which to properly prepare the substitutes being too short, Capt. Baker decided not to take the crew over, preferring to forego the pleasure rather than make a new show.
